RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 46

Representative Buck introduced House Concurrent Resolution 46:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to congratulate Western High School Girls Golf Team for winning the IHSAA 2001 Girls Golf State Finals.

Whereas, Western High School Girls Golf Team was the top-ranked team of 2001;

Whereas, Western High School Girls Golf Team was undefeated in the 2001 season;

Whereas, Western High School Girls Golf Team won the 29th Annual IHSAA Golf State Championship over Martinsville High School by 16 strokes, breaking Martinsville's six year title streak;

Whereas, Five Western players advanced to the second round of the tournament—juniors Lynnsey Showers, Kylene Pulley, and Kelly Maden, and freshmen Amber Lindgren and Lauren Showers;

Whereas, Western had three players below 80 strokes in the second round of play, finishing with a total score of 629, which is the third lowest score in tournament history;

Whereas, This was the first State Championship ever in any sport for Western High School; and,

Whereas, The Western High School Girls Golf Team includes: Coach Steve Hoppes; juniors Kylene Pulley, Lynnsey Showers, and Kelly Maden; sophomore Stephanie Hoppes; and freshmen Amber Lindgren, Lauren Showers, Sujanta Dwadasi, and Tracy Todd: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Western High School Girls Golf Team on their undefeated season and the IHSAA Girls Golf State Championship.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Western High School and each member of the team.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Hershman.

House Concurrent Resolution 47

Representatives Behning, Frizzell, Pond, Bosma, D. Young, Turner, Hoffman, Gregg, and Yount introduced House Concurrent Resolution 47:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to recognize March 3-9, 2002 as Lutheran Schools Week and to acknowledge Lutheran Schools for their excellence in education.

Whereas, The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod is the second largest private educator in the country; only the Catholic Church is larger;

Whereas, There are 2,400 Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools in the United States;

Whereas, There are 1,301 Early Childhood Schools, 1,031 Elementary Schools, and 80 High Schools declared as Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools in the United States;

Whereas, There are 119 Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools in Indiana;

Whereas, In Indiana, there are 61 Early Childhood Schools, 54 Elementary Schools, and 4 High Schools that are Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools;

Whereas, There are 282,000 children attending Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools in the United States; and

Whereas, There are 14,365 children attending Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools in Indiana; Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly commends the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Schools for their excellence in education and recognize March 3-9, 2002 as Lutheran Schools Week.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to the Executive Director of Lutheran Schools, David C. Beringer, and the Principal of Lutheran High School, Gary St. Clair.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Long and M. Young.

House Concurrent Resolution 48

Representative Frizzell introduced House Concurrent Resolution 48:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing Pleasant Grove Elementary School, Greenwood, Indiana, on its being selected as a Blue Ribbon School.

Whereas, The Blue Ribbon School Award Program was developed to promote and support the improvement of education in America;

Whereas, The Blue Ribbon School Award Program recognizes schools that demonstrate a strong commitment to educational excellence for all students, achieve high academic standards, or have shown significant academic improvement over five years;

Whereas, One such school is Pleasant Grove Elementary in Greenwood, Indiana;

Whereas, The motto of Pleasant Grove Elementary, "Reaching for Personal Excellence at Every Opportunity," reflects the teaching philosophy of the staff and helps to explain the success the students and teachers of this excellent educational facility have enjoyed;

Whereas, As a winner of the Blue Ribbon School Award, Pleasant Grove Elementary has been added to an elite group of only 267 schools nationwide that have been chosen to receive this award, and Pleasant Grove is the only Johnson County school to ever receive this award; and

Whereas, The Blue Ribbon School Award shines the public spotlight on these very special schools, giving them the recognition they so richly deserve: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly wishes to congratulate Pleasant Grove Elementary on its being selected as one of Indiana's Blue Ribbon Schools.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Roger Micnerski, principal of Pleasant Grove Elementary School.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator M. Young.

House Concurrent Resolution 49

Representative Scholer introduced House Concurrent Resolution 49:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor the American Legion Auxiliary's Hoosier Girls State for their commitment to developing an interest in and an understanding of good citizenship and good government.

Whereas, American Legion founded Boys State in 1935 to gather teenage representatives of high schools together for citizenship training programs on the processes of city and state government;

Whereas, American Legion Auxiliary's Girls State was founded in 1936 in order to provide young women similar training in the positive processes of self-government;

Whereas, In 1940 a resolution was presented at the American Legions Auxiliary's Indiana Department Convention that began the sponsorship of Hoosier Girls State, and the first session of Hoosier Girls State convened on Saturday, June 17, 1941;

Whereas, The study of government is of major importance to the youth of our nation, and Hoosier Girls State is a chance for high school juniors to study local, county, and state governmental processes;

Whereas, Since its inception there have been more than 42,000 young women from Indiana who have attended this government-in-action program;

Whereas, Indiana is one of 48 states that participates in the Girls State program, and the Hoosier Girls State has been widely recognized as one of the most successful of the programs; and

Whereas, In 2002, Hoosier Girls State will hold its 61st session in June on the campus of Indiana State University in Terre Haute, Indiana with another 800 or more participants and 90 volunteer staff members and counselors: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly honors the American Legion Auxiliary's Hoosier Girls State for their commitment to developing an interest in and an understanding of good citizenship and good government.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to each involved in the American Legion Auxiliary's Hoosier Girls State.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Skillman and Lubbers.

House Concurrent Resolution 50

Representative Bottorff introduced House Concurrent Resolution 50:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating Doug Sharp, Jeffersonville, Indiana, on winning the Bronze medal in the four man bobsledding event at the Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Whereas, American men had not taken a medal in the men's bobsled event in the winter Olympics since 1956;

Whereas, This situation was remedied during the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City, Utah, when USA I and USA II took second and third place medals in the men's bobsled event;

Whereas, Doug Sharp is an extremely dedicated and committed athlete, who uses his "book of life" to express his goals;

Whereas, Doug Sharp's "book of life" is a journal he keeps in which he writes what he wants to happen in his life; Doug often wrote that he wanted to be in the Olympics;

Whereas, Doug Sharp's dream came true beyond his expectations in the 2002 Winter Olympic Games;

Whereas, Doug Sharp of Jeffersonville, Indiana, is a push athlete in the USA II four man bobsled that took the Bronze medal in the 2002 Winter Games;

Whereas, Doug Sharp is a former pole vaulter from Purdue University who became interested in bobsledding in 1998;

Whereas, In addition to his talent on the four man bobsled, Doug as an All-State football player in high school, a pole vaulter at Purdue University, an assistant track coach at the University of Louisville, a soldier, and a chiropractor; and

Whereas, Doug Sharp is an extremely talented athlete who has sacrificed physically, professionally, and personally to achieve his goal; he has brought great honor to the state of Indiana and the entire country: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly wishes to congratulate Doug Sharp on winning the Bronze medal in the four man bobsledding event at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City, Utah and to acknowledge the tremendous amount of determination and dedication that went into achieving this goal.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Doug Sharp and his family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Lewis.

House Resolution 25

Representatives Ayres, Kuzman, and Pond introduced House Resolution 25:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to name the Karner Blue Butterfly as the state insect of Indiana.

Whereas, Porter Lakes Elementary School has been very persistent in their efforts to name the state insect of Indiana as the Karner Blue Butterfly;

Whereas, Eleven states have no insect including Indiana, Arizona, Hawaii, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Rhode Island, and West Virginia;

Whereas, In 1992, New Hampshire adopted the Karner Blue Butterfly, also known as the Melissa Blue Butterfly, as their state insect;

Whereas, The Karner Blue Butterfly was listed as an endangered species in 1992 and has been labeled as extinct in Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, and Ontario;

Whereas, Development, fire suppression, conversion of land for agriculture, and fragmentation have helped to put the Karner Blue Butterflies on the endangered and extinction lists;

Whereas, The Karner Blue Butterfly inhabits only Indiana, New York, New Hampshire, Michigan, Minnesota, and Wisconsin—Wisconsin having the largest population of this specific butterfly;

Whereas, Indiana has three known populations of the Karner Blue Butterfly, the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore contains two: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognizes Porter Lakes Elementary School for their hard work and persistence in their desire to name the Karner Blue Butterfly as Indiana's state insect.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Indiana General Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to Porter Lakes Elementary School.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 26

Representatives Burton and Denbo introduced House Resolution 26:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION urging compassion and support for the disabled men and women who have served or will serve in the armed forces of the United States of America.

Whereas, The Disabled American Veterans, Department of Indiana (DAV) is located in Indianapolis, IN;

Whereas, The Disabled American Veterans Department was organized on the twenty-second day of November 1932;

Whereas, The Disabled American Veterans Department was formed for the purpose of upholding and maintaining the constitution and laws of the United States, realizing the true American ideals and aims for which we fought, protecting and advancing the interest and welfare of all the World War Veterans, who were wounded, gassed, injured, or disabled during or by reason of such military service, cooperating with the Veterans Administration and all other public and private agencies devoted to the cause of relieving, improving, and advancing the physical and mental conditions, cure and medical treatment, health and economic interests of all such handicapped veterans, stimulating a feeling of mutual devotion, helpfulness, and comradeship among all veterans, and encouraging in all people that spirit of tolerance and understanding that will tend to guard against future wars;

Whereas, There are 20,000 members of the Disabled American Veterans in the Hoosier State of Indiana;

Whereas, Commander Loran K. Rutledge of the Disabled American Veterans of the State of Indiana enlisted in the U.S. Army on February 5, 1944;

Whereas, Commander Loran K. Rutledge served in the European Theater of War with the 103rd Infantry Division as a machine gunner, earning the following decorations: ETO-2 Cluster, Combat Infantryman Badge, Purple Heart, and the Bronze Star with Commendations;

Whereas, He was discharged on April 19, 1946 and reenlisted in the U.S. Army again on September 11, 1950;

Whereas, He served 8 months in Korea with the 424 Field Artillery Battalion and was discharged on June 8, 1952;

Whereas, Commander Loran K. Rutledge of the Disabled American Veterans of the State of Indiana has traveled over 25,000 miles crisscrossing the state, meeting, listening and assisting Hoosier veterans, wives, and children;

Whereas, Commander Rutledge organized and coordinated "Military Appreciation Night" on Veterans Day with a free meal for all Hoosier active duty military and veterans from 15 Indiana Golden Corral Restaurants;

Whereas, He helped to collect approximately $3,000 and 25 tons of clothing to help feed and clothe the homeless in Marion County for the DAV/VA Thanksgiving and Christmas Homeless meals over the past five years;

Whereas, Commander Loran K. Rutledge coordinated the first annual "DAV Golf Outing" homeless meal fundraiser;

Whereas, Commander Rutledge has authorized funds for three new Disabled American Veterans vans. These new transportation vans will be placed in Connersville, Lafayette, and Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Disabled American Veterans vans have traveled over 900,000 miles in the year 2001, crisscrossing the state. They have transported veterans administration hospitals for the veterans' needed medical appointments and surgery: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives of the Indiana General Assembly honor Commander Loran K. Rutledge for his involvement in the Disabled American Veterans Department.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Commander Loran K. Rutledge.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 27

Representative Burton introduced House Resolution 27:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to honor and remember James Dixon's commitment to his family, the Greenwood community, and his job.

Whereas, James Dixon was a 1967 graduate of Whiteland Community High School, and he received a bachelor's degree in biology from IUPUI and also graduated from Indiana University School of Optometry in 1979;

Whereas, He opened his own professional eye care practice, Dixon Eyecare Center in Greenwood, 23 years ago;

Whereas, Dr. James L. Dixon was a lifelong resident of Johnson County, had a very strong sense of community and was committed to serving his community in several ways;

Whereas, He served as an elder and deacon at Greenwood Christian Church, he was a member of the Greenwood Community School Corporation, he was also a member and past president of Jubilee Masonic Lodge 746 in Whiteland, Indiana, he was past president of Whiteland Alumni Association, and he was a member of the Indianapolis Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine; he served on the Indiana Board of Optometry, he was a dedicated and active member of the Indiana Optometric Association and served as President of that association in 1996-97; and he was appointed by the governor to serve on the health professional subcommittee of the Commission on Quality Health Care;

Whereas, The James L. Dixon, Jr. OD Memorial Scholarship Fund was created in his remembrance;

Whereas, James Dixon was a deeply devoted husband of Debi Dixon for about 21 years, and father to Jessica Lynette Dixon and Michael James Dixon; and

Whereas, He took his son on a "guys only" vacation to California, and he had started speaking to his daughter about college: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives remembers Dr. James L. Dixon, his devotion to his family and his commitment to the community of Greenwood.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Indiana General Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to Debi Dixon and their two children, Jessica and Michael.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 28

Representative Burton introduced House Resolution 28:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to recognize and honor Shan Rutherford, Senior Minister at Greenwood Christian Church for 25 years.

Whereas, Greenwood Christian Church just celebrated its 25th Anniversary;

Whereas, Shan Rutherford came to Greenwood Christian Church in 1976 as the Senior Minister;

Whereas, Before coming to Greenwood, he held ministries in California, Texas, and Oklahoma;

Whereas, Shan has traveled to preach in Africa, India, Russia, Australia, Haiti, Chile, and Europe;

Whereas, He graduated high school from Tulsa Central High School and attended Ozark Christian College in Joplin, Missouri;

Whereas, Shan Rutherford began preaching when he was 18 years old and has continued preaching 41 years;

Whereas, He has also served his community as a member of the Greenwood Police Merit Board;

Whereas, Shan and his devoted wife, Karen, have been married for almost 40 years; she has been a constant supporter of Shan's efforts and has been the blunt of his jokes many times, referring to her cooking;

Whereas, They have three sons- Shan, 36, an attorney in Texas, James, 34, a pipefitter in Indiana, and Dan, 31, a minister in North Carolina;

Whereas, Shan and Karen Rutherford have four grandchildren and are expecting their fifth: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives of the Indiana General Assembly honors Shan Rutherford, Senior Minister of Greenwood Christian Church.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Shan Rutherford.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 29

Representative Scholer introduced House Resolution 29:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to recognize CERIAS, the Center for Education and Research Information Assurance and Security.

Whereas, CERIAS, the Center for Education and Research in Information Assurance and Security at Purdue University, was founded in 1998 and is widely recognized as the world's foremost academic center of excellence in issues of information security and privacy;

Whereas, CERIAS has been organized as a multi-disciplinary center at Purdue with over 100 affiliated faculty, staff, and graduate students on the Purdue campus interacting with business and industry to conduct research into privacy, computer and network protection, e-commerce safety, cybercrime prevention and investigation, computer-biased terrorism, and national defense;

Whereas, CERIAS has succeeded as having the week of April 15-19 named as Indiana Information Security Week in order to bring attention to the threats posed by information security challenges;

Whereas, This public awareness initiative will include events and activities designed to enhance the security literacy and skills of Indiana businesses, organizations, and citizens and it will kick off with an Information Security Symposium presented by CERIAS during the week of April 15th that will focus on issues of privacy, protection of intellectual and proprietary property, security education, and intrusion detection;

Whereas, Invited guests and speakers will include experts and officials from the state of Indiana and across the nation to discuss and consider information security issues of significance to citizens and the public, private, and nonprofit sectors;

Whereas, Throughout the month of April, the Indiana Information Security Awareness Initiative will take a multi-layered and multi-pronged approach to increasing security literacy and skills in order to position Indiana at the core of study and information regarding information assurance and security;

Whereas, Indiana Information Security Week's efforts to raise awareness will include the development of media guides and information campaigns; the provision of information and resources to agencies, business leaders, and organizations to increase the security skills of businesses engaged in a variety of online e-commerce activities; and the provision of information and assistance to public decision makers for use in developing appropriate security policies and legislation: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognize CERIAS for their academic excellence in issues of information security and privacy.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to CERIAS.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 30

Representatives Stevenson and Aguilera introduced House Resolution 30:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring the Highland, Indiana, 13 year old Babe Ruth Baseball All-Star team on winning the Indiana State championship.

Whereas, The Highland, Indiana, 13 year old Babe Ruth Baseball All-Star team recently won the Indiana state championship;

Whereas, Highland, Indiana, was the smallest community representing any state at the Ohio Valley regional tournament, proving once again that quality not quantity is what really makes the difference;

Whereas, After achieving a record of 4-1 in the district tournament, the Highland team advanced to the regional tournament in South Bend, Indiana;

Whereas, Highland finished the South Bend tournament with a 4-0 record and advanced to the championship series against Kokomo;

Whereas, The championship series was a best of three games series;

Whereas, After two games, the series was tied at one apiece, forcing a playoff game that Highland won 12-2;

Whereas, Team members Max Bement, Jason Dills, Andrew Drake, Brian Gentry, Brian Jelski, Zach Kikalos, Mike McFarland, Matt Neidow, Keith Peterson, Kyle Ruebel, Tom Silaj, Tim Usher, Jon Velasco, Bob Weishar, and Steve Zaborowski put in countless number of hours in order to become the Indiana Babe Ruth Baseball 13 year old state champions;

Whereas, In addition to the dedication and hard work of the team members, coaches Nick Kikalos and Kyle Ruebel and manager Dave Neidow provided the necessary support and motivation that enabled these exceptional young people to achieve such a lofty level of excellence;

Whereas, In addition to the team, coaches, and manager, the parents provided the outside support and motivation that helped this team reach the state championship; and

Whereas, Excellence at this level deserves special recognition: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives wishes to congratulate the Highland, Indiana, 13 year old Babe Ruth Baseball All-Star team on its victory in the state championship.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the team members, coaches, and manager.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 27

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 27, sponsored by Representatives T. Adams and Munson:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Delta High School Women's Volleyball Team for their accomplishments in the 3A State Volleyball Championship.

Whereas, The Delta High School Volleyball Team won its first State Volleyball Championship;

Whereas, The team finished the season with a 35-4 record; and

Whereas, Juniors Ashley DeNeal and Blair Buchanan, were selected the first team all-state: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the General Assembly of the State of Indiana honor the Delta High School Volleyball Team for its accomplishments in winning the 3A State Volleyball Tournament and extend its congratulations to the team members, coaches, and school.

SECTION 2. That the General Assembly congratulate Ashley DeNeal and Blair Buchanan for being selected to the first team all-state.

SECTION 3. That a copy of this resolution be sent to Athletic Director Steve Reed, Head Coach Robb Painter, Assistant Coach Mike Dalton, Junior Varsity Coach Katie LaGrange, Manager Amy Winchester, Players Kim Ballinger, Blair Buchanon, Haley Bullock, Jenna Cox, Kristy Cox, Ashley Deneal, Amanda Goebel, Kortney Gray, Malorey Grove, Anya Janeway, Stephanie Kovach, McKenzie Mauck, Sarah McGill, Megan McGrane, Tabatha Pence, Lesli Randall, Ali Rector, Malorie Smith, Alyssa Templeton, Jamie Thompson, Jami Wilder, Katherine Yadon, Laura Yadon, and Ball Girl Tessa McGill.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 40

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 40, sponsored by Representatives Fry, Mangus, and Bauer:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor Savannah Holderman for receiving a 2002 Prudential Spirit of Community Award.

Whereas, Savannah Holderman, a resident of Mishawaka and a student at LaSalle Elementary School, has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service by receiving a 2002 Prudential Spirit of Community Award;

Whereas, This prestigious award, presented by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals, honors young volunteers across America who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to serving their communities;

Whereas, Savannah earned this award by giving generously of her time and energy to a school supply drive designed to provide low-income students with proper school supplies;

Whereas, As a sixth grader, Savannah took the initiative to ask members of her Girl Scout troop, family members and local businesses for donations to her school supply drive;

Whereas, As a result of her effort, Savannah has donated 45 bags of school supplies to needy students, and hopes to produce even more in the years to come; and

Whereas, The strength of our communities and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of young people like Savannah who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the General Assembly, on behalf of the People of the State of Indiana, does hereby congratulate and honor Savannah Holderman as a recipient of a Prudential Spirit of Community Award.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Savannah Holderman.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 41

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 41, sponsored by Representatives Mock and Fry:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to congratulate and honor John Damalas for his receipt of the 2001 Ameritech Young Economist Award.

Whereas, Each year the Indiana Council for Economic Education (ICEE) chooses one outstanding high school economics student from a group of twelve regional winners to be the statewide recipient of the Ameritech Young Economist Award;

Whereas, In considering applications for the Award, the ICEE looks for students who have distinguished themselves in economics through a school, business or community program and who have demonstrated overall scholastic achievement, leadership and citizenship;

Whereas, While at Elkhart Memorial High School, John Damalas attained a high level of scholastic achievement, earning a grade point average which exceeded the 4.0 grading scale;

Whereas, While in high school, John demonstrated his talents and leadership abilities by representing Elkhart Memorial as a participant in the Foundation for Teaching Economics, the Economics For Leaders Conference, the Federal Reserve Economic Challenge, and the Academic Decathlon;

Whereas, As a high school senior, John distinguished himself in the business community when he co-founded Tempest Web Publishing in August, 2000; and

Whereas, The achievements of John Damalas are worthy of recognition and should serve as an example to students throughout the state of Indiana: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the General Assembly, on behalf of the people of Indiana, hereby congratulates John Damalas for his numerous achievements in the field of economics and for winning the 2001 Ameritech Young Economist Award.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to John Damalas and Patrick Weil, Principal of Elkhart Memorial High School.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 42

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 42, sponsored by Representatives Bauer and Kromkowski:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to congratulate Michael Hamburg upon being named the Clay Mathematics Institute's Olympiad Scholar.

Whereas, Michael Hamburg has excelled in mathematics from an early age, winning the outstanding achievement award in the 1995 Midwest Talent Search for Young Students when he was in fifth grade. As an eighth grader Michael won a four year scholarship to Purdue University in a statewide middle school math competition;

Whereas, Hamburg was one of only 270 students who qualified for the USA Mathematical Olympiad six-hour, six-question exam. Upon completing the exam students were honored as winners, while Hamburg was one of 13 to earn honorable mention;

Whereas, Michael earned his honorable mention status with his ingenious answer to a geometry problem, which only nine finalists answered correctly. He derived a simple answer and diagram that was lauded as a "proof without words" by the judges; and

Whereas, The Clay Mathematics Institute also recognized the 17 year old St. Joseph's High School Senior for his creative solution by designating him the CMI Olympiad Scholar: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the People of Indiana and the Indiana General Assembly congratulate Michael Hamburg for his outstanding performance at the USA Mathematical Olympiad and on being named the Clay Mathematics Institute's Olympiad Scholar.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to Michael Hamburg and Kathleen Ratliff, Principal of Saint Joseph High School of South Bend, Indiana.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 52

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 52, sponsored by Representatives Becker, L. Lawson, Pond, and Duncan:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Girl Scouts on their 90th anniversary.

Whereas, Tuesday, March 12, 2002, marks the 90th anniversary of Girl Scouts of the USA, founded by Juliette Gordon Low in 1912 in Savannah, Georgia;

Whereas, Throughout its long and distinguished history, Girl Scouts—the pre-eminent organization for girls—has inspired millions of girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, and patriotism;

Whereas, Girl Scouting will lead businesses and communities to teach girls the skills needed to take active roles in math, science and technology careers and to fulfill our country's economic needs;

Whereas, Through Girl Scouting, every girl, everywhere grows strong, gains self-confidence and skills for success, and learns her duty to the world around her;

Whereas, Through participation in Girls' Voices, a national community service project, every girl will learn to use her own voice to address an issue of concern to her and perhaps make a change for the better in her community; and

Whereas, Some 50 million women have enjoyed the benefits of the Girl Scouts program, as an American tradition, for 90 years: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Girl Scouts upon the 90th anniversary of their founding.

SECTION 2. The people of Indiana recognize the more than three million Girl Scouts and the numerous volunteers throughout the United States for their achievements and contributions to the State of Indiana and its citizens.

SECTION 3. That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Girl Scout Council of Drifting Dunes and the Calumet Council of Girl Scouts.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 54

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 54, sponsored by Representatives Hoffman and Frenz:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to recognize the contributions of Germans and German-Americans to the State of Indiana.

Whereas, According to the 1990 U.S. Census 2,084,667 Hoosiers reported having German ancestry, making 37.6 percent of the state's total population of German descent;

Whereas, Germans and German-Americans have also played an important role in the history of Indiana, including the formation of a regiment in the Civil War known as the "First German Regiment." This unit, officially operating as the 32nd Indiana Volunteer Infantry Regiment, consisted entirely of German immigrants and the descendants of local German settlers;

Whereas, In recognition of common servicemen, the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, completed in 1901 and dedicated

100 years ago in 1902, was designed by Bruno Schmitz of Berlin, Germany's foremost architect of national monuments;

Whereas, The bronze Army astragal sculptural band above the monument base was designed by Nicolaus Geiger of Berlin, and the astragal band and eight candelabra were manufactured in Berlin;

Whereas, Given this large impact upon the state, the Indiana German Heritage Society was founded as a statewide historical and educational membership organization designed to promote an interest in the German-American heritage of Indiana and to encourage and support the preservation and celebration of this heritage; and

Whereas, This year's annual meeting of the Society will commemorate the contributions of Germans and German-Americans in the design and construction of the Monument, as well as the honorable service of Germans and German-Americans in the Civil War: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the General Assembly, on behalf of the people of the State of Indiana, does hereby recognize and honor the contributions of Germans and German-Americans to the State of Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the General Assembly does also congratulate the Indiana German Heritage Society for its important contribution to the perseverance of Indiana's cultural heritage.

SECTION 3. That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Ruth Reichman, President of the Indiana German Heritage Society.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 55

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 55, sponsored by Representatives Frizzell and Burton:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Center Grove High School Boys Tennis Team on winning the 2001 IHSA State Tennis Championship Title.

Whereas, Center Grove High School, led by coach Ivan Smith and assistant coach Steve Gantz, was crowned the 2001 Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSA) Boys Tennis State Champion on October 13, 2001 at the Indianapolis Racquet Club East;

Whereas, After two state runner-up finishes in the previous five years, Center Grove defeated Terre Haute North by a score of 4-1 to capture its first state title;

Whereas, The No. 2 doubles team of seniors Nick Hesler and Andy Millis won in a marathon match with a score of 2-6, 7-6, 8-6, and 6-2;

Whereas, Juniors Joe Epkey, No. 2 singles, and Evan West, No. 3 singles, each kept their undefeated records intact by scoring wins of 6-0, 6-1 and 6-1, 6-0, respectively;

Whereas, Sophomore Jarrod Epkey and senior Matt Feeney, who make up the No. 1 doubles team, scored a 6-2, 6-1 victory to clinch the team's victory; and

Whereas, The only loss for Center Grove came in the No. 1 singles match-up where a hard-fought loss was handed to Senior John Stone, who will attend Indiana University and play tennis for the Hoosiers next spring: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the Center Grove High School Boys Tennis Team on their victory in the 2001 IHSA State Tennis Championship.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to coach Ivan Smith, assistant Steve Gantz, and team members Jarrod Epkey, Joe Epkey, Matt Feeney, Nick Hesler, Chris Jackson, Andrew McGuire, Andy Millis, Dan Schoch, John Stone, Evan West, and Matt Zacarias.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 56

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 56, sponsored by Representatives Frizzell and Burton:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating Center Grove High School Senior Jeremy VanAlstyne for capturing the 2002 Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSA) State Wrestling Championship in his class.

Whereas, On February 16, 2002, Jeremy VanAlstyne, a Center Grove High School senior, captured the IHSA State Championship in wrestling in the 275-pound weight class;

Whereas, Jeremy, who was coached by head coach Rusty Cullom and assistants Dan Gandolph and Wes Dodson, defeated Brent Surface of Michigan City High School by a score of 11-6 in the championship match;

Whereas, Jeremy finished his senior wrestling season with an impressive record of 27 wins and only 2 losses; and

Whereas, Upon graduation, Jeremy, an outstanding athlete, will attend the University of Michigan where he will play football for the Wolverines: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly is extremely proud of the athletic accomplishments of Jeremy VanAlstyne as one of the exceptional athletes in Indiana.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to principal, James Mervilde; head coach, Rusty Cullom; Jeremy VanAlstyne and his parents.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.
